BLACK MOUNTAIN SMOKERY NEWS

SEPTEMBER 2019

Dear Customers

Thank you for your continued support and the kind words so often sent to us. We love feedback - especially recipe ideas - please keep them coming!

Kate and I are always at the end of the phone to answer any queries and take your orders if you can't face ordering online.

Our Smokery Team

Naomi has settled into the BMS production team for her university placement year and is doing a great job with Corrine. They will be joined by our Hugh (1) and his friend, Mike.

We also welcome our Gappies, Hugh (2) and his friend, Kit, for the run up to Christmas. They will provide back up in the office and help Jonathan in the warehouse. You will also find them working alongside Hugh (1) and myself, at fairs. As ever, please treat them gently as they find their feet!

Why smoked foods?

Delicious, luxurious and easy to prepare, smoked foods provide the perfect present, exquisite party food and nibbles as well as simple suppers and lazy lunches. Look no further for your Christmas larder and glorious gourmet gifts.

Our Seasonal Plea!

Ordering in advance allows us to plan our production and deliver the freshest produce with the longest possible shelf life, on a day of your choice.

Please can we urge you to order ahead for Christmas for your preferred delivery date. Our produce has good shelf life and can be frozen, so we would suggest that you take delivery of personal orders earlier in December to avoid the courier chaos of Christmas week.

Finally, please try to provide a contact phone number and a leave safe instruction for every delivery address.

Happy eating and happy giving.

With very best wishes

Jo and Jonathan Carthew
