Chelsea Physic Garden will be holding its merriest Christmas Fair yet. The annual celebration will host over 100 curated stands showcasing the finest independent suppliers within the beautiful surroundings of the Garden.

From jewellery and homeware to cosy winter accessories, there's something for everyone at this year's Christmas Fair.

For those looking for an experience that extends beyond shopping, the Garden is also hosting a stocking full of festive activities.

Swing by a gift-wrapping masterclass with British designer Jane Means to make your presents really stand out under the tree, or get creative at the wreath-making stand. As well as Santa's Grotto you can also entertain your little ones in the Christmas classroom, where the team will hold festive crafts and activities.
